"I have read with much interest and gratification your letter dealing with the operations of the War Finance Coporation." the President's letter said. "Although I have endeavored as well as was possible in view of the many other duties concerning me, to keep in touch with the work of the corporation, I confess some astonishment at the scope which your operations have attained."

The President reviewed the work of the corporation, showing that the corporation had approved more than 5,200 applications from banking and financing institutions for loans aggregating $187,500,000:$58,300,000 of applications for loans to cooperative marketing organizations, and advances totalling $37,500,000 to finance the export of agricultural commodities since the passage of the agricultural credit act in August, and added: of the agricultural credit act in August, and added:
